

"May the Eye of Wisdom and the Eternal Mind aid this work designed for the benefit of the present & all Future Generations," prayed Loammi Baldwin. September 10, 1794, Billerica, Massachusetts.

SUNDAY WALK

May 5, 1:30 pm. A round-trip of three miles along some of the best remnants of the Middlesex Canal will begin at the Town Park, 759 Main St (Rte. 38), Wilmington 01887. From the intersection of 128 and 38, go 2.4 miles north. The Town Park is on the left. Walkers will cross Maple Meadow Brook on boards. Tea and cookies at Patches Pond, gift of Mike & Diane McInnis. Leader, Robert Winters. Sponsored by Appalachian Mountain Club and Middlesex Canal Association, www.middlesexcanal.org.